3 How to use

3.1 to power it on

Turn keyboard on by switching power button to “on”. Blue LED lights up then goes out.

3.2 Recharge your keyboard

When LED flashes even without any operation, that means your keyboard is in low voltage. Please recharge it by the included charging cable. (Mini end of USB cable to keyboard and other end to PC). The red LED light will be steady on and go off when fully charged.

3.3 Put your Apple TV remote into the back case of the keyboard

Notice :

- 1) The end hole of the back case is for the signal transmitter of your original remote (Please starting from the bottom of the keyboard)
- 2) If you think your Apple TV remote is a bit loose in the back case, please use tape to make it more stable
- 3) This back case is perfect for Apple TV2 and Apple TV 3 remote

3.4 to pair it with your Apple TV box

1) on your keyboard:

(to make sure the keyboard is not in low power capacity)

Turn on the keyboard and long press the key "Fn" and then "BT" to make the Bluetooth keyboard search other Bluetooth devices around (the blue indicator will flash, which means the keyboard is in a searching mode and can be found by other bluetooth devices.)

note: Please mind the order "first press Fn and then BT", and never let go of your fingers until the Blue indicator beside the "On/Off" button blinks quickly which means a searching mode.

2) on your Apple TV

Connect your Apple TV box to TV and turn TV on .

then use the remote to navigate to "setting" and click and follow the the steps below

3.4.1 Click Setting

3.4.2 Click Bluetooth under General

3.4.3 Click iPazzPort Bluetooth

3.4.4. Connected

note;

- 1) the Apple TV will search other Bluetooth devices around when you press Bluetooth under general in steps 3.4.2
- 2) you may have to wait for a few seconds before the TV find the external Bluetooth keyboard which ends with an icon" iPazzPort Bluetooth" on TV screen.

3.5 to use it with your Apple TV

3.5.1 the front keyboard for smooth text input

3.5.2 flip over for the use of the existing remote

4.2 what if I lost or get lost my original remote

- (1) Use an old or another Apple TV remote
- (2) Use a third Bluetooth keyboard like this (you should borrow a Apple remote to sync this keyboard with your Apple TV)
- (3) App: You can Download and Install free Remote app to turn your iPhone, iPad, or iPod into an Apple TV remote once they have connected to the same Wi-Fi network and home sharing button is turned on Steps install app---click the icon "add Apple TV"---paired
- (4) Buy another new one

4.3 fails to stay connected with Apple TV

- (1) You have to go forward or back out of some APP or programmer with your remote . (the keyboard may be not compatible with some APP or programmer)
- (2) Not being used within 2 minutes ,it disconnects but reconnects once you use it again. Example: watching a movie on Netflix it shows disconnected and once the movie is done you press any button to reconnect the keyboard if you want to watch something new

- (3) Please make sure the resource signal is strong enough
- (4) Please make sure the keyboard is not in low power capacity
- (5) Please make sure the keyboard is not being connected with some other Bluetooth devices around at the same time (like TV ,smart phone, speaker ,etc)
- (6) Frequency interference always exists. Please put away obstacles or shut off other Bluetooth enable units with similar frequency , or put the keyboard closer to the PC or TV.
- (7) please point this keyboard at your TV box to get better signal transmission and reception .
